GREAT SHOT MUSI GARLTON STAKE STOP USING GUN

Recoil of Weapon Has Caused Abscess on Cheek of William Herr.

ANALOSTAN MEETING ENDS.

Rain and High Wing Stopped Programme At Eighth Event.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 31.—The second day of the Analostan gun tournament opened with adverse weather conditions. Threatening weather, which finally terminated into a downpour of rain, yet between showers the programme was continued until the end of the eighth event, when rain stopped the shoot. The dark clouds and high wind made good scores an impossibility. Herr dropped but seven in 160, a remarkable score.

There was a considerable falling off in the attendance on the second day, probably due to the weather, as the programme was attractive. Only thirty shooters faced the traps. The great J. A. R. Elliott was sadily out of form, losing eighteen in the first 100 and winding up with 125 out of 160 targets.

E. H. Storr, the Peters representative, was going some in his first 100, with but ten lost, and only dropped fourteen in 180. Jue Hunter and George Lyon.

thrown fully sixty yards.

The experts present on the last day were E. H. Storr, of Peters Cartridge Company; R. W. Sampson, of Austin Cartridge Company; J. A. R. Elliott, of Winchester Arms Company, and F. E. Butler, William Herr and A. M. McCormick, of U. M. C. Company.

NOTES.

Uncle Billy Wagner, of Washington, was the cynosure of all eyes, being the oldest active trapshot in the country. He was always in the money shooting about ninety per cent, and won out second amateur average frem George Lyon. It seemed an imposition to have Lyon and Ly German to shoot the last event, as it was during a severe thunder storm. Lyon dropped ten birds and lost second average.

A very serious complaint is affecting Mr. William Herr, one of the world's

Tuesday, June 6, 1905, at 5:30 o'clock P. M., that most attractive and desirable three-story and mansard brick residence above referred to, situated on the south side of Grace Street, between First and Second Street. In matter of solidity and thoroughness of construction end elligibility of location, this house has but few equals, and being by common consent on the best square on Grace Sirect, it should easily attract the attention of persons seeking first-class residential property. The lot fronts 33 feet and runs back about 159 feet to an alley in the rear, upon which there is a good brick stable. We have no hesitation in commending this house, as it possesses all of the best elements of residential property.
